SAFEGUARDING POLICY

1. GENERAL STATEMENT

Agility People Services Limited, recognises that the employment and management of our Employees and training of Learners, is important and therefore gives full backing to this policy and full support to any person implementing it. Our aim is to Get it right first time. (GIRFT)

It is company Safeguarding policy to as far as reasonably practicable to provide, practise, implement, monitor, measure and review our Safeguarding Policy and statement and put it into practise. Agility also implements an Equal Opportunity Diversity Policy to ensure their practises, activities, are in accordance with the law. This company will not tolerate the harassment or bullying of one member of its community by another within the company, a customer or a learner.

Employees with management or supervisory responsibility must ensure the implementation of the Safeguarding Policy and Equal Opportunity Policy measures contained in this policy are carried out, by arranging for the provision of adequate information and training. They must also ensure their responsibilities are delegated when they are absent.

Effective implementation of this policy requires the wholehearted commitment of everyone in the company. All employees are reminded that legally they must abide by the following legal rules:

1. The Race Relations Act 1976
2. The Sex Discrimination Act 1975
3. The Disability Discrimination Act 1995
4. Health and Safety Act 1974
5. The Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015
6. Children Act 1989
7. Children Act 2004
8. Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
9. Keeping Children Safe in Education: Statutory guidance for schools and colleges (2014)
10. The Care Act 2014, which came into effect from 1st April 2015

If any employee disregards their obligations to these Acts, it will be considered as gross misconduct and therefore severe disciplinary action may result. Every person or member of staff is also personally liable under these Acts. Agility has a zero-tolerance approach to abuse of vulnerable persons or children.

A copy of this general statement will be given/or displayed on notice boards, to all employees and appropriate training arranged to ensure they are aware of their responsibilities.

The Safeguarding Policy will be revised, when necessary, particularly when the business changes its nature or size. To ensure effective use of this policy and the way in which it operates will be reviewed annually. Such revisions will be brought to the attention of the relevant personnel.

3. HARRASSMENT AND VULNERABLE PERSONS MEANING AND KINDS OF HARRASSMENT AND OR VICTIMISATION OR BULLYING

All employees should acquaint themselves with the Harassment meaning and kinds of Harassment or bullying.

MEANING:

Harassment & Victimisation can take a variety of different forms ranging from repeatedly ignoring a colleague or subjecting them to unwelcome attention, to intimidation, humiliation, ridicule or offence. More extreme forms of harassment & Bullying include physical threats of violence. Harassment & bullying may consist of a single incident or a series of incidents. Behaviour that may appear trivial as a single incident, can constitute harassment or Victimisation when repeated, or in the context of the employee or manager relationship. Harassment & Victimisation behaviour may not always be intentional, but is always unacceptable, whether intentional or not.

Bullying is the exercise of power over another person through negative acts of behaviours that undermine the person or their professionally. Bullying can be threatening, insulting, abusive, disparaging or intimidating behaviour which places inappropriate pressure on the recipient or has the effect of isolating or excluding them. Bullying can take the form of shouting, sarcasm, derogatory remarks concerning job performance or constant criticism. Bullying is to be distinguished from vigorous academic debate or the actions of a manager making reasonable (but unpopular) requests of employees.

VULNERABLE PERSONS: (COULD BE)

- A single person who meets a group that harasses or bullies the single person
- A young person or vulnerable person put in a position that they cannot handle, or they do not have the social skills to handle.
- A person empowered by a more physically person
- A person empowered or controlled by politically powerful person, group or rules that not legal or unfair
